No Artificial Ingredients

Try these flavorful, handmade, Sourdough Einkorn Pretzels for a nutritious snack on any occasion.

All wheat is a descendant of Einkorn the oldest grain in history. It is the only grain that has never been "hybridized." Because of its deeper root system Einkorn contains roughly 30% more protein than modern wheat and many other essential nutrients.

More good news! Einkorn's unique protein makes it easier to digest, therefore some gluten sensitive people may be able to tolerate Einkorn!

Sprouted Einkorn Crackers

Ingredients: Organic sprouted Einkorn flour, organic virgin coconut oil, organic flax seed, organic chia seed, water, aluminum free baking powder (sodium pyrochosphate, bicarbonate, non-GMO cornstarch, non-calcium phostate), sucanat, himalayan pink salt.

Einkorn means "1 grain" in German, because each grain is attached individually, rather than in clusters on the stalk.

Foods that are bred for higher yields, have less flavor, because nutrients have flavor. Einkorn's deeper root system and lower yield makes it more nutritious and flavorful than modern wheat. How about trying some local grown, hand-made Einkorn crackers that are good for you.
